The tragedy and ruin of Russia

The tragedy and ruin of Russia's revolutions is best seen in the Ckraine. Its great farms have been laid low. Its rich lands are lying fallow and going to waste.

Its fine railway systems have been shot to pieces. Its bridges have been blown up. It has been damaged more than any other part of Russia. In this former land of pienty dozens and dozens of dead bodies are dropped off at each railway station, dead from hunger or typhus.
